ENCLOSURE

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : Director, FBI

DATE: December 15, 1947

FROM : SAC, San Diego

SUBJECT: ELLIS M. ZACHARIAS, USN, (Ret.)

Attached is a write-up in the San Diego Tribune-Sun of December 13, 1947, of the speech given by Captain ZACHARIAS before the San Diego Dinner Club here last Friday evening. One item of interest is that set forth in the last paragraph where Captain ZACHARIAS is stated to have indicated that counter-intelligence can be more effectively performed through the Central Intelligence Agency than under the FBI.

I was not present at the dinner and will take no action concerning this in the absence of Bureau advice.

Optimist in Views

REAR ADM. E. M. ZACHARIAS

Zacharias Sees Continued Peace

The world is witnessing the beginning of "the bankruptcy of Russian political leadership", in the opinion of Rear Adm. Ellis M. Zacharias, USN, ret., who expressed optimism here today over the likelihood of continued peace.

The noted officer, onetime 11th Naval District intelligence officer, who won international fame toward the close of World War II with his Japanese language "psychological warfare" broadcasts, last night addressed the San Diego Dinner Club in the San Diego Club. He is on a nationwide lecture tour and will leave San Diego tomorrow.

Activities Falling

Communist Party activities in France and Italy are falling because "more than 75 percent of the people of those countries are now reconciled to go along with the western world," Zacharias said.

"Communist strategy has been to cause present moderate governments in France and Italy to be replaced by extreme rightist governments, which would provide more legitimate targets," he declared. "But the moderate, democratic governments have shown more strength than anticipated, and with a fair assurance that the Marshall Plan of assistance will go through, the peoples of those countries no longer can be wooed away by Russia."

"The Soviet Union now must perform an about-face on the diplomatic front. However, inside Russia there is no serious rift or an immediate prospect of revolution."

Another reason for Zacharias' optimism over little chance of war with Russia is the Soviet Union's "material depletion."

"She has nothing to wage war with," he said. "The Germans destroyed her completely up to the Ural Mountains. Russia now has only wheat, rye and coal, and that isn't enough to conduct a war."

"One of the major reasons for the 'iron curtain' is to hide from the western world what Russia lacks, not what she has."

Upholds 'Propaganda'

Zacharias deplored what he termed the failure of the United States to organize effective peacetime instruments of propaganda and counter-intelligence.

"Propaganda, 'the constant repetition of the truth to make America known to the world,' should be removed from the State Department and placed in a new agency comprising experts in radio, motion pictures, press, business and labor, Zacharias believes."

And counter-intelligence, the "war between wars" to ferret out spies and saboteurs, can be more effectively performed through the Central Intelligence Agency in the reorganized Department of the Defense than under the FBI, in his opinion.

Dear Jim:

I have received your letter of December 22, 1947, requesting that I continue to conduct investigations of applicants for employment by the Central Intelligence Agency.

I would like very much to continue to conduct these investigations because of your interest in this project, but I regret that I will be unable to do so. The case load of the Bureau is constantly being augmented by the addition of investigative responsibilities in a constantly increasing volume. Without enumerating the additional investigative responsibilities which have been assigned to the Bureau within the past three months, I might point out that our volume of work has continued to mount to the point where it is becoming virtually impossible to keep abreast of it. Under the circumstances, I must of necessity discontinue certain investigative operations, and since the Central Intelligence Agency is basically an investigative organization, and since the investigation of that Agency's applicants has been performed as an accommodation and not as a legal requirement, I regret that I must discontinue the Central Intelligence Agency work in order that the Bureau can devote additional Agent time to those responsibilities imposed upon us by Congress.

With best wishes and kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

DECLARATION OF POLICY

SEC. 2. In enacting this legislation, it is the intent of Congress to provide a comprehensive program for the future security of the United States; to provide for the establishment of integrated policies and procedures for the departments, agencies, and functions of the Government relating to the national security; to provide three military departments for the operation and administration of the Army, the Navy (including naval aviation and the United States Marine Corps), and the Air Force, with their assigned combat and service components; to provide for their authoritative coordination and unified direction under civilian control but not to merge them; to provide for the effective strategic direction of the armed forces and for their operation under unified control and for their integration into an efficient team of land, naval, and air forces.

TITLE I—COORDINATION FOR NATIONAL SECURITY

NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL

SEC. 101. (a) There is hereby established a council to be known as the National Security Council (hereinafter in this section referred to as the "Council").

The President of the United States shall preside over meetings of the Council: Provided, That in his absence he may designate a member of the Council to preside in his place.

The function of the Council shall be to advise the President with respect to the integration of domestic, foreign, and military policies relating to the national security so as to enable the military services and the other departments and agencies of the Government to cooperate more effectively in matters involving the national security.

The Council shall be composed of the President; the Secretary of State; the Secretary of Defense, appointed under section 202; the Secretary of the Army, referred to in section 205; the Secretary of the Navy; the Secretary of the Air Force, appointed under section 207; the Chairman of the National Security Resources Board, appointed under section 103; and such of the following named officers as the President may designate from time to time: The Secretaries of the executive departments, the Chairman of the Munitions Board appointed under section 213, and the Chairman of the Research and Development Board appointed under section 214; but no such additional member shall be designated until the advice and consent of the Senate has been given to his appointment to the office the holding of which authorizes his designation as a member of the Council.

(b) In addition to performing such other functions as the President may direct, for the purpose of more effectively coordinating the policies and functions of the departments and agencies of the Government relating to the national security, it shall, subject to the direction of the President, be the duty of the Council—

(1) to assess and appraise the objectives, commitments, and risks of the United States in relation to our actual and potential military power, in the interest of national security, for the purpose of making recommendations to the President in connection therewith; and

(2) to consider policies on matters of common interest to the departments and agencies of the Government concerned with the national security, and to make recommendations to the President in connection therewith.

(c) The Council shall have a staff to be headed by a civilian executive secretary who shall be appointed by the President, and who shall receive compensation at the rate of $10,000 a year. The executive secretary, subject to the direction of the Council, is hereby authorized, subject to the civil-service laws and the Classification Act of 1923, as amended, to appoint and fix the compensation of such personnel as may be necessary to perform such duties as may be prescribed by the Council in connection with the performance of its functions.

(d) The Council shall, from time to time, make such recommendations, and such other reports to the President as it deems appropriate or as the President may require.

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

SEC. 102. (a) There is hereby established under the National Security Council a Central Intelligence Agency with a Director of Central Intelligence, who shall be the head thereof. The Director shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, from among the commissioned officers of the armed services or from among individuals in civilian life. The Director shall receive compensation at the rate of $14,000 a year.

(b) (1) If a commissioned officer of the armed services is appointed as Director then—

(A) in the performance of his duties as Director, he shall be subject to no supervision, control, restriction, or prohibition (military or otherwise) other than would be operative with respect to him if he were a civilian in no way connected with the Department of the Army, the Department of the Navy, the Department of the Air Force, or the armed services or any component thereof; and

(B) he shall not possess or exercise any supervision, control, powers, or functions (other than such as he possesses, or is authorized or directed to exercise, as Director) with respect to the armed services or any component thereof, the Department of the Army, the Department of the Navy, or the Department of the Air Force, or any branch, bureau, unit or division thereof, or with respect to any of the personnel (military or civilian) of any of the foregoing.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (1), the appointment to the office of Director of a commissioned officer of the armed services, and his acceptance of and service in such office, shall in no way affect any status, office, rank, or grade he may occupy or hold in the armed services, or any emolument, perquisite, right, privilege, or benefit incident to or arising out of any such status, office, rank, or grade. Any such commissioned officer shall, while serving in the office of Director, receive the military pay and allowances (active or retired, as the case may be) payable to a commissioned officer of his grade and length of service and shall be paid, from any funds available to defray the expenses of the Agency, annual compensation at a rate equal to the amount by which $14,000 exceeds the amount of his annual military pay and allowances.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 6 of the Act of August 24, 1912 (37 Stat. 555), or the provisions of any other law, the Director of Central Intelligence may, in his discretion, terminate the employment of any officer or employee of the Agency whenever he shall deem such termination necessary or advisable in the interests of the United States, but such termination shall not affect the right of such officer or employee to seek or accept employment in any other department or agency of the Government if declared eligible for such employment by the United States Civil Service Commission.

(d) For the purpose of coordinating the intelligence activities of the several Government departments and agencies in the interest of national security, it shall be the duty of the Agency, under the direction of the National Security Council—

(1) to advise the National Security Council in matters concerning such intelligence activities of the Government departments and agencies as relate to national security;

(2) to make recommendations to the National Security Council for the coordination of such intelligence activities of the departments and agencies of the Government as relate to the national security;

(3) to correlate and evaluate intelligence relating to the national security, and provide for the appropriate dissemination of such intelligence within the Government using where appropriate existing agencies and facilities: Provided, That the Agency shall have no police, subpoena, law-enforcement powers, or internal-security functions: Provided further, That the departments and other agencies of the Government shall continue to collect, evaluate, correlate, and disseminate departmental intelligence: And provided further, That the Director of Central Intelligence shall be responsible for protecting intelligence sources and methods from unauthorized disclosure;

(4) to perform, for the benefit of the existing intelligence agencies, such additional services of common concern as the National Security Council determines can be more efficiently accomplished centrally;

(5) to perform such other functions and duties related to intelligence affecting the national security as the National Security Council may from time to time direct.

(e) To the extent recommended by the National Security Council and approved by the President, such intelligence of the departments and agencies of the Government, except as hereinafter provided, relating to the national security shall be open to the inspection of the Director of Central Intelligence, and such intelligence as relates to the national security and is possessed by such departments and other agencies of the Government, except as hereinafter provided, shall be made available to the Director of Central Intelligence for correlation, evaluation, and dissemination: Provided, however, That upon the written request of the Director of Central Intelligence, the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation shall make available to the Director of Central Intelligence such information for correlation, evaluation, and dissemination as may be essential to the national security.

(f) Effective when the Director first appointed under subsection (a) has taken office—

(1) the National Intelligence Authority (11 Fed. Reg. 1337, 1339, February 5, 1946) shall cease to exist; and

(2) the personnel, property, and records of the Central Intelligence Group are transferred to the Central Intelligence Agency, and such Group shall cease to exist. Any unexpended balances of appropriations, allocations, or other funds available or authorized to be made available for such Group shall be available and shall be authorized to be made available in like manner for expenditure by the Agency.

The Chairman of the Board shall be appointed from civilian life by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall receive compensation at the rate of $14,000 a year.

(b) The Chairman of the Board, subject to the direction of the President, is authorized, subject to the civil-service laws and the Classification Act of 1923, as amended, to appoint and fix the compensation of such personnel as may be necessary to assist the Board in carrying out its functions.

(c) It shall be the function of the Board to advise the President concerning the coordination of military, industrial, and civilian mobilization, including—

(1) policies concerning industrial and civilian mobilization in order to assure the most effective mobilization and maximum utilization of the Nation's manpower in the event of war;

(2) programs for the effective use in time of war of the Nation's natural and industrial resources for military and civilian needs, for the maintenance and stabilization of the civilian economy in time of war, and for the adjustment of such economy to war needs and conditions;

(3) policies for unifying, in time of war, the activities of Federal agencies and departments engaged in or concerned with production, procurement, distribution, or transportation of military or civilian supplies, materials, and products;

(4) the relationship between potential supplies of, and potential requirements for, manpower, resources, and productive facilities in time of war:

(5) policies for establishing adequate reserves of strategic and critical material, and for the conservation of these reserves:

(6) the strategic relocation of industries, services, government, and economic activities, the continuous operation of which is essential to the Nation's security.

STATEMENT OF THE MANAGERS ON THE PART OF THE HOUSE

The managers on the part of the House at the conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the amendments of the House to the bill (S. 758) to promote the national security by providing for a National Security Organization, which shall be administered by a Secretary of National Security, and for a Department of the Army, a Department of the Navy, and a Department of the Air Force within the National Security Organization, and for the coordination of the activities of the National Security Organization with other departments and agencies of the Government concerned with the national security, submit the following statement in explanation of the effect of the action agreed upon by the conferees and recommended in the accompanying conference report:

The House amendment to the text of the bill strikes out all of the Senate bill after the enacting clause. The committee of conference recommend that the Senate recede from its disagreement to the amendment of the House and agree to the same with an amendment which is a substitute for both the Senate bill and the House amendment, and that the House agree to the same.

The bill as agreed to in conference is the same as the House amendment, except for typographical, clerical, and clarifying changes, and the following:

NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL

Both the Senate bill and the House amendment provided (sec. 101 (a)) that the National Security Council be composed of the President, the Secretary of State, the Secretary of Defense (in the Senate bill designated as "Secretary of National Security"), the Secretary of the Army, the Secretary of the Navy, the Secretary of the Air Force, and the Chairman of the National Security Resources Board. Under the Senate bill the Council was also to be composed of such other members as the President may designate from time to time. Under the bill as agreed to in conference (sec. 101 (a)) the Council, in addition to the members specifically named above, is to be composed of such of the following-named officers as the President may designate from time to time: The Secretaries of the executive departments, the Chairman of the Munitions Board, and the Chairman of the Research and Development Board. No such additional member is to be designated until the advice and consent of the Senate has been given to his appointment to the office the holding of which authorizes his designation as a member of the Council. Thus, for example, the Secretary of Commerce now in office could be designated by the President as a member of the Council, but if in the future a new Secretary of Commerce is appointed the new Secretary could not serve as a member of the Council until the advice and consent of the Senate has been given to his appointment to the office of Secretary of Commerce.

The Senate bill (sec. 101 (c)) provided that the Secretary of Defense be director of the staff of the Council. The House amendment (sec. 101 (c)) provided that the Council have a staff headed by a civilian executive secretary to receive compensation at the rate of $14,000 a year. The bill as agreed to in conference (sec. 101 (c)) is the same as the House amendment except the compensation of the executive secretary is fixed at the rate of $10,000 a year.

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

The Senate bill provided that the Director of Central Intelligence be appointed from the armed services or from civilian life. The House amendment provided that the Director of Central Intelligence be appointed from civilian life. The bill as agreed to in conference (sec. 102) provides that the Director shall be appointed from among the commissioned officers of the armed services or from among individuals in civilian life and adds a new subsection (b) which provides that if a commissioned officer of the armed services is appointed as Director, then (1) in the performance of his duties as Director, he is to be subject to no supervision, control, restriction, or prohibition (military or otherwise) other than would be operative with respect to him if he were a civilian in no way connected with the Department of the Army, the Department of the Navy, the Department of the Air Force, or the armed services or any component thereof; and (2) he is not to possess or exercise any supervision, control, powers, or functions (other than such as he possesses, or is authorized or directed to exercise, as Director) with respect to the armed services or any component thereof, the Department of the Army, the Department of the Navy, or the Department of the Air Force, or any branch, bureau, unit or division thereof, or with respect to any of the personnel (military or civilian) of any of the foregoing. Except as noted in the preceding sentence the appointment to the office of Director of a commissioned officer of the armed services and his acceptance of and service in such office is in no way to affect any status, office, rank, or grade he may occupy or hold in the armed services or any emolument, perquisite, right, privilege, or benefit incident to or arising out of any such status, office, rank, or grade. Also any such commissioned officer, while serving in the office of Director, is to receive the military pay and allowance (active or retired, as the case may be) payable to a commissioned officer of his grade and length of service and is to be paid, from any funds available to defray the expenses of the Central Intelligence Agency, annual compensation at a rate equal to the amount by which $14,000 exceeds the amount of his annual military pay and allowances.

The House amendment (sec. 105 (d)) provided that to the extent recommended by the National Security Council and approved by the President, such intelligence operations of the departments of Government as relate to the national security shall be open to the inspection of the Director of Central Intelligence, and such intelligence as relates to national security and is possessed by such departments and other agencies of the Government shall be made available to the Director of Central Intelligence for correlation, evaluation, and dissemination. Section 102 (d) of the bill as agreed to in conference provides that to the extent recommended by the National Security Council and approved by the President, such intelligence of the departments and agencies of the Government, except as hereinafter provided, relating to the national security shall be open to the inspection of the Director of Central Intelligence, and such intelligence as relates to the national security and is possessed by such departments and other agencies of the Government, except as hereinafter provided, shall be made available to the Director of Central Intelligence for correlation, evaluation, and dissemination; provided, however, that upon the written request of the Director of Central Intelligence, the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation shall make available to the Director of Central Intelligence such information for correlation, evaluation, and dissemination as may be essential to the national security.

PERSONNEL OF NATIONAL SECURITY RESOURCES BOARD

Both the Senate bill (Sec. 103 (b)) and the House amendment (Sec. 106 (b)) authorized the chairman of the National Security Resources Board to appoint and fix the compensation of such personnel as may be necessary to assist the Board in carrying out its functions. The Senate bill provided that such authority be subject to the civil-service laws and the Classification Act of 1923, as amended. The House amendment provided that such authority be without regard to the civil-service laws and the Classification Act of 1923, as amended. The bill as agreed to in conference (Sec. 103 (b)) follows the language of the Senate bill.

SECRETARY OF DEFENSE

Both the Senate bill (sec. 202 (a)) and House amendment (sec. 102 (a)) provided that the new Secretary be appointed from civilian life by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The House amendment contained a proviso (not contained in the Senate bill) providing that a person who has held a commission in a Regular component of the armed services shall not be eligible for appointment as Secretary of Defense. The bill as agreed to in conference (sec. 202 (a)) contains a provision that a person who has within ten years been on active duty as a commissioned officer in a Regular component of the armed services shall not be eligible for appointment as Secretary of Defense.

The Senate bill (sec. 202 (a) (2)) imposed upon the Secretary of Defense the duty to exercise general direction, authority, and control over certain departments and agencies. The House amendment (sec. 102 (a) (2)) added the word "general" before the word "authority" and before the word "control". The words added by the House amendment have been deleted in the bill as agreed to in conference (sec. 202 (a) (2)) as surplusage.

The Senate bill (sec. 202 (a) (3)) imposed upon the Secretary of Defense the duty to formulate and determine the budget estimates for submittal to the Bureau of the Budget. The House amendment contained no such provision. The bill as agreed to in conference (sec. 202 (a) (4)) contains this provision from the Senate bill.

COMPOSITION AND DUTIES OF THE NAVY AND OF NAVAL AVIATION -

The House amendment (sec. 203 (b)) contained language relating specifically to the composition and duties of the United States Navy and of Naval Aviation. The Senate bill (sec. 206 (b)) provided that the provisions of this act shall not authorize the alteration or diminution of the existing relative status of Naval Aviation. The first and last paragraphs of section 206 (b) of the bill as agreed to in conference are the same as the first and last paragraphs of section 203 (b) of the House amendment. The second, third, and fourth paragraphs of section 203 (b) of the House amendment are omitted and the following is inserted in lieu thereof:

All naval aviation shall be integrated with the naval service as part thereof within the Department of the Navy. Naval aviation shall consist of combat and service and training forces, and shall include land-based naval aviation, air transport essential for naval operations, all air weapons and air techniques involved in the operations and activities of the United States Navy, and the entire remainder of the aeronautical organization of the United States Navy, together with the personnel necessary therefor.

The Navy shall be generally responsible for naval reconnaissance, antisubmarine warfare, and protection of shipping.

COMPOSITION AND DUTIES OF THE MARINE CORPS

The House amendment (sec. 203) contained the following provision:

(c) The United States Marine Corps, within the Department of the Navy, shall include land combat and service forces and such aviation as may be organic therein. The primary mission of the Marine Corps shall be to provide fleet marine forces of combined arms, together with supporting air components, for service with the fleet in the seizure or defense of advanced naval bases and for the conduct of such land operations as may be essential to the prosecution of a naval campaign. It shall be the duty of the Marine Corps to develop, in coordination with the Army and the Air Force, those phases of amphibious operations which pertain to the tactics, technique, and equipment employed by landing forces. In addition to its primary mission, the Marine Corps shall provide detachments and organizations for service on armed vessels of the Navy, shall provide security detachments for the protection of naval property at naval stations and bases, and shall perform such other duties as the President may direct: Provided, That such additional duties shall not detract from or interfere with the performance of the primary mission hereinbefore set forth. The Marine Corps shall be responsible, in accordance with integrated joint mobilization plans, for the expansion of peacetime components of the Marine Corps to meet the needs of war.

The Senate bill (sec. 206 (b)) provided that the provisions of this Act shall not authorize the alteration or diminution of the existing relative status of the Marine Corps (including the Fleet Marine Forces). The bill as agreed to in conference contains the same language (sec. 206 (c)) as that in the House amendment except that (1) the words "The primary mission of the Marine Corps shall be" at the beginning of the second sentence are changed to read "The Marine Corps shall be organized, trained, and equipped"; (2) the words "to its primary mission" at the beginning of the fourth sentence are omitted; and (3) the words "performance of the primary mission hereinbefore set forth" in the proviso at the end of the fourth sentence are omitted and in lieu thereof the words "operations for which the Marine Corps is primarily organized" are inserted.

COMPENSATION OF SECRETARIES

The Senate bill (sec. 302 (b)) provided that the Secretary of the Army, the Secretary of the Navy, and the Secretary of the Air Force shall each receive the compensation prescribed for the Secretary of Defense. The House amendment (sec. 301 (b)) provided that these three Secretaries shall each receive compensation at the rate of $14,500 a year. The bill as agreed to in conference (sec. 301 (b)) provides that these three Secretaries shall each receive the compensation prescribed by law for heads of executive departments.

INSTITUTE OF INTER-AMERICAN AFFAIRS INVESTIGATIONS
CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY CHECKS

In accordance with Bureau instructions contact was made with [redacted] of the Central Intelligence Agency for the purpose of effecting arrangements whereby that agency would make name checks at the request of this office on investigations involving personnel of the Institute of Inter-American Affairs. In this regard, [redacted] and [redacted] have agreed to check the names of all individuals submitted to the Central Intelligence Agency through the indices of all investigative files maintained by that agency. [redacted] has advised that the check he will make will consist of an examination of all indices maintained by the Central Intelligence Agency and that a negative response on such a check will indicate that there is no derogatory information of any character in the possession of the Central Intelligence Agency. In the arrangement made the actual indices check will be made by personnel of the Central Intelligence Agency.

In the event a file is located at the Central Intelligence Agency which can be identified with the name being searched and which contains derogatory information, such information will be listed on the request form submitted by this office provided it is not of an involved nature. Should the file be large in size it will be made available for review by a Special Agent assigned to the Washington Field Office, unless the file contains what is considered by the Central Intelligence Agency to be "delicate" information, in which event a summary report will be provided by Central Intelligence Agency personnel to the Washington Field Office.

[redacted] since the checking of names against their indices is new, has been unable to advise how long these name checks will take but has assured this office that every effort will be extended to handle them in a minimum amount of time.

[redacted] of CIA discussed with Special Agent Doherty of the Liaison Section the matter of dissemination of information furnished by this Bureau to CIA.

[redacted] desired to know whether or not there would be any objection on the part of the Bureau to CIA furnishing information received from this Bureau to other agencies of the government providing the source of this information was not disclosed. [redacted] was advised that the Bureau takes the responsibility of furnishing to the interested agencies of the government any information which comes to its attention, and to have CIA to disseminate this information would be merely a duplication.

[redacted] stated when information is received by CIA from FBI which information is incorporated in a CIA report, if the Bureau objected to its dissemination, it would be necessary for CIA to delete the Bureau's information from the CIA report. In other words, CIA receives information from all agencies of the government which information is consolidated into one report.

[redacted] was informed that this request would be brought to the attention of the Bureau, and when an answer was received, he would be advised.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that the Bureau interpose no objection to the dissemination by CIA of information received from this Bureau providing the source thereof is not disclosed and secondly, only when the information to be disseminated is part of information received by CIA from other sources.

You will recall that by letter dated February 11, 1948, Rear Admiral R. H. Hillenkoetter, Director of CIA, advised that the Bureau would no longer receive copies of [redacted] but that [redacted] would continue to be furnished. You penned the following note on this letter: "Tell them to keep this. We don't want it either. H."

Prior to advising Rear Admiral Hillenkoetter with regard to your comment, I thought you would be interested in knowing of a conversation had with Rear Admiral Hillenkoetter by Special Agent J. F. Doherty of the Liaison Section in which Hillenkoetter indicated that he had advised the National Security Council that the FBI should continue to receive the [redacted] as well as [redacted] Admiral Hillenkoetter also indicated that even though the National Security Council had decided that the FBI would no longer be on the list for [redacted] it would be confidentially furnished to the Bureau for its information.

In the way of background concerning this situation, Admiral Hillenkoetter related that at a meeting of the National Security Council held on February 8, 1948, the State Department representative on the Council, Mr. Lovett, read a memorandum recommending that the following agencies be removed from the dissemination list for [redacted] Atomic Energy Commission, The Joint Intelligence Group, the Executive Secretary of the Military Liaison Committee of Atomic Energy, OCD of the State Department, and the FBI. At this meeting, according to Admiral Hillenkoetter, he told the Council that the FBI should receive this [redacted] but that it was ultimately decided by the Council that the afore-mentioned agencies were to be removed from the list.

When asked for the reason for the State Department's action before the National Security Council, Admiral Hillenkoetter advised that Mr. Lovett informed the Council that in the event [redacted] was to be transmitted to the afore-mentioned agencies the State Department would [redacted]

[redacted] Therefore, it was Lovett's contention that because of [redacted] it should no longer be disseminated to the five agencies recommended for removal from the dissemination list.

Since September 30, 1941, this office has maintained active liaison with the State Department in Washington involving passport and visa matters which liaison as the Bureau is aware has proved to be highly successful and advantageous from the standpoint of investigative activity.

For sometime this office in the handling of foreign nationality groups has opened investigative files on aliens who are alleged to be involved in intelligence and propaganda activities in the United States. Many times informant coverage and investigation by the Field has pointed to probable similar activity on the part of these individuals in their resident countries.

The Bureau is requested to consider authorizing the Washington Field Office to establish liaison with CIA on a selective basis to check through CIA those persons who are alleged to have engaged in such activity in foreign countries.

An occasion for such a check would concern an individual recently having arrived in this country to become established with Embassies or foreign agencies; another occasion would concern an individual who has been reported by a former employee of OSS or CIA to have acted as an espionage agent prior to arrival in the United States.

I desire to point out that this contact would not involve any matters whatsoever relating to policy but would confine the contact to inquiries regarding pending investigation for background information of investigative value.

Dear General Chamberlin:

Information concerning the Marine Personnel of the Army Transportation Corps of the New York Port of Embarkation has been made available to this Bureau by an individual who has requested that his name be kept confidential.

Our informant claimed that the above described unit is full of aliens, who are not supposed to be holding government jobs. He added that the remaining few are naturalized citizens who lose little time in professing their love for Communism. The informant adds that this situation seems to prevail especially among the licensed officers, and that it holds true not only for the Marine personnel but also for the Civil Service workers.

The informant makes the statement that the Port C.I.C. seems to exist in name only. He claims that reports seem to go unheeded and that the Communists grow stronger daily. He comments that the average American seems actually fearful of criticizing Communism or the aliens who seem to be running the Transportation Corps and the base.

In particular, our informant advised that recently the First Officer of an unnamed ship, Anselmo Martiriano, a Spaniard who is a naturalized citizen of the United States, recently struck a fellow officer who had dared to criticize Europe and Communism. It was stated that the officer he struck is a graduate of Annapolis, and an ex Navy man. The whole matter was hushed up because of the influence exerted by Martiriano at the base.

SUBJECT: LOYALTY REPORT

TO: THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

It is the opinion of many that the Marine Personnel of the Army Transportation Corps of the New York Port of Embarkation should be thoroughly investigated as to their loyalty to the Government.

The Division is full of aliens, who are not even suppose to be any longer holding government jobs. The remaining few are naturalized citizens who lose little time in professing their love for communism. This seems to prevail especially among the licensed officers. This holds true not only for the marine personnel but also for the civil service workers at the base.

The Port C.I.C. seems to exist in name only. Reports seem to go unheeded and the communists grow stronger daily. The average American seems actually fearful of criticizing communism or the aliens who seem to be running the Transportation Corps and the base.

The 1st. Officer of this ship, Anselmo Martiriano, a Nat. Citiz. (Spain) recently struck a fellow OFFICER for daring to criticize Europe and Communism. The Officer he struck is a graduate of Annapolis, and an ex Navy man. The whole matter was hushed up because of the pull of the Spainard at the base.

As an American I sincerely hope that Washington will look into the situation here in New York. Needless to say if my name or this letter falls into Army hands I will find myself out of a job with the Govt.

UNCLOAKED AND NO DAGGERS: CONCERN IN WASHINGTON OVER THE INADEQUACY OF U.S. INTELLIGENCE IN THE AREAS OF ANALYSIS AND SECRET INTELLIGENCE (SPY) CAUSED THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL TO CREATE A THREE-MAN COMMISSION TO SURVEY THE ENTIRE FIELD AND RECOMMEND DRASTIC REVISION.

IT SEEMS NOW TO BE GENERALLY ACCEPTED THAT ADMIRAL HILLENKOETTER'S CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AUTHORITY HAS DEVELOPED A DANGEROUS INEPTITUDE. HILLENKOETTER'S WORST MISTAKE SO FAR: DISSOLUTION OF THE ESTABLISHED ARMY AND FBI SECRET NETS AND CREATION OF AN ENTIRELY NEW ONE UNDER CIA (THE FBI COVERED LATIN AMERICA, THE ARMY THE REST OF THE WORLD). CONSERVATIVELY, SOME INTELLIGENCE CAREERISTS SAY, IT REQUIRES AT LEAST TWO DECADES TO DEVELOP A SECRET NET EVEN APPROXIMATING THE WORLD CHAMPION BRITISH SIS. THE FBI AND ARMY HAD BEEN OPERATING THEIR LATE NETS FOR SIX YEARS WHEN HILLENKOETTER, CONFIRMING THE DECISION OF HIS UNSPECTACULAR PREDECESSOR ROY VANDENBERG, WASHED THEM OUT TO MAKE WAY FOR HIS OWN.

ENCLOSURE

SOME ELEMENTS OF THE CIA NET, WHICH WERE WARTIME OSS AND CONSEQUENTLY HAD DEVELOPED SOME EFFECTIVE. UNFORTUNATELY, THE MOST CRITICAL OF ALL INTELLIGENCE AREAS, THE SOVIET HEGEMONY, IS VIRTUALLY BLANKED OUT BY DECLARATION OF WAR OR ENEMY ACTION, HIS NET WOULD BE BLINDED IN THAT AREA.

THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL VOTED TO PICK ITS COMMISSION OF INQUIRY FROM OUTSIDE THE ARMY, NAVY AND CIA TO INSURE OBJECTIVE FINDINGS POSSIBLE. (SHEPLEY)

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

Mr. Jerome Doyle stopped at my Office on March 1, 1948.

Forrestal spoke to Doyle about the situation, and Doyle suggested that an independent committee make a careful study of CIA's operations to determine just what was wrong with it.

Forrestal talked to Admiral ~~Souers~~ and Souers selected a committee which is to conduct a study of CIA and submit a report to Forrestal. The committee includes [redacted] _____ and a third person named _____

Doyle expressed the opinion that there would not be much to come out of this board because they were going to meet once every two or three months, and consider reports upon the operations of CIA prepared by CIA officials. Doyle pointed out that for practical purposes, the CIA officials, under the program outlined, are passing upon their own competency, efficiency and effectiveness, and that the results of their analysis of their own conduct will be obvious.

Respectfully,

E. A. Tamm
